

3rd Grade Spotlight: Who We Are

An inquiry the nature of the self; human relationships including families, friends, communities and cultures;

This IB unit takes a look at regions and cultures in North America.

Central Idea: Populations are made up of different relationships, beliefs and values.

Our unit will dive into...

*What it is like to live in different parts of North America (form) *How relationships are affected by cultural diversity (connection) *Reflecting on our cultural background (reflection)

We will explore these key concepts:

Connection-How is it connected to other things? Form-What is it like? Reflection-How do we know?

Our guiding questions will include:

* If you could live in another part of North America, where would it be and why? *How does where you live affect your behavior? *How has Brigham Academy impacted your life experiences?

We will focus on being these Learner Profile attributes:

Caring-We show empathy, compassion and respect. Open-Minded-We critically appreciate our own cultures and personal histories, as well as the values and traditions of others.

We will demonstrate these IB Attitudes:

Confidence-We have the courage to take risks and be sure in our abilities. Respect-We respect ourselves, others, and the world around us.

We will practice these skills:

* Self-Management- We will practice organization and time management skills.