

5th Grade Spotlight:

Where We Are in Place and Time

An inquiry into the discoveries, explorations and migrations of humankind; the relationships between and the interconnectedness of individuals and civilizations from local and global perspectives.

This IB unit takes a look into civilizations.

Central Idea: Civilizations from the past impact humankind.

Our unit will dive into...

How civilizations are connected (connection).

How discovery influences our lives (connection).

Being responsible for overcoming challenges (responsibility).

We will explore these key concepts:

*Connection *Responsibility

Our guiding questions will include:

What discoveries influenced us as a community? Why is it important to be responsible?

How do people overcome challenges?

We will focus on being these Learner Profile attributes:

*Communicators *Principled

We will demonstrate these IB Attitudes:

*Enthusiasm *Commitment

We will practice these skills:

*Communication Skills *Self-Management Skills